Liability Assumed by You under an Agreement

It is not possible for You to transfer to Us the entire spectrum of legal liabilities which You may be compelled to bear under the terms of a wide variety of indemnity and/or hold harmless clauses frequently inserted into commercial business contracts by principals, lessors or other parties.

Liability assumed by You under an agreement is covered only to the extent described in the Policy.

Claims Made and Notified Basis of Cover

Section 1 of this Policy is issued on a “Claims made and notified” basis.

This means that the Insuring Clauses respond to:

- (a) Claims first made against You during the Period of Insurance and notified to the Insurer(s) during the Period of Insurance, provided that You were not aware at any time prior to the Policy inception of circumstances which would have put a reasonable person in Your position on notice that a Claim may be made against him/her; and
- (b) written notification of facts pursuant to Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). The facts that You may decide to notify are those which might give rise to a Claim against You. Such notification must be given as soon as reasonably practicable after You become aware of the facts and prior to the time at which the Policy expires. If You give written notification of facts the Policy will respond even though a Claim arising from those facts is made against You after the Policy has expired. For Your information, Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) is set out below:

“S40(3) Where the Insured gave notice in writing to the Insurer(s) of facts that might give rise to Claim against the Insured as soon as was reasonably practicable after the Insured became aware of those facts but before the insurance cover provided by the contract expired, the Insurer(s) are not relieved of liability under the contract in respect of the Claim when made by reason only that it was made after the expiration of the period of the insurance cover provided by the contract.”

When the Period of Insurance expires, no new notification of Claims or facts can be made on the expired policy even though the event giving rise to the Claim against You may have occurred during the Period of Insurance.

Goods and Services Tax

The Premium is the amount You pay Us for this insurance and it includes stamp duty, Goods and Services Tax ('GST'), other government charges and any fire services levy that applies.

You must tell Us about the input tax credit ('ITC') You are entitled to on Your Premium and Your Claim, each time You make a Claim. If You do not give Us this information or if You tell Us an incorrect ITC, We will not pay any GST liability You incur.

We will reduce the GST amount We pay by the amount of any ITC to which You are or would be entitled if You made a relevant acquisition. In these circumstances, the ITC may be claimable through Your Business Activity Statement ('BAS').

The Indemnity Limit and any sub-limits applicable to the Policy and any endorsement attaching to the Policy are exclusive of GST.

You must advise Us of Your correct Australian Business Number & Taxable Percentage.

The above taxation information is only a guide. Your individual circumstances will be important to and may affect the tax treatment of any Premiums You pay or the payment for Claims. You should consult Your tax adviser regarding Your individual circumstances.

- (ii) if either 2.2(a) or 2.2(b) above applies or for any other reason it is determined that a Claim is not covered by this Policy, We may cease to pay Costs and Expenses to the Insured, unless We, having regard to Your interests, acting reasonably and at Our discretion, decide to continue to pay Costs and Expenses resulting from such Claim;
- (iii) where either 2.2(a) or 2.2(b) above applies or for any other reason it is determined that a Claim is not covered by this Policy, the Insured will refund Costs and Expenses paid by Us, unless We agree in writing to waive recovery of such Costs and Expenses.

Nor is an Insurer otherwise responsible for any liability of any other Insurer that may underwrite this contract.

The proportion of liability under this contract underwritten by an Insurer (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the

In the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, each member of the syndicate (rather than the syndicate itself) is an Insurer. Each member has underwritten a proportion of the total shown for the syndicate (that total itself being the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together). The liability of each member of the syndicate is several and not joint with other members. A member is liable only for that member's proportion. A member is not jointly liable for any other member's proportion. Nor is any member otherwise responsible for any liability of any other Insurer that may underwrite this contract. The business address of each member is Lloyd's, One Lime Street, London EC3M 7HA. The identity of each member of a Lloyd's syndicate and their respective proportion may be obtained by writing to Market Services, Lloyd's, at the above address.

Although reference is made at various points in this clause to "this contract" in the singular, where the circumstances so require this should be read as a reference to contracts in the plural.

9.22 Australia Terrorism Insurance Act 2003 Notice

The Underwriters and/or Insurer(s) have treated this insurance (or part of it) as an insurance to which the Australian Terrorism Insurance Act 2003 (Cth) ('ATIA') applies.

ATIA and the supporting regulations made under the ATIA deem cover into certain policies and provide that the Terrorism Exclusion to which this insurance is subject shall not apply to any "eligible terrorism loss" as defined in ATIA.

Any coverage established by ATIA is only in respect of any "eligible terrorism loss" resulting from a "terrorist act" which is a "declared terrorist incident" as defined in ATIA. The Terrorism Exclusion to which this insurance is subject applies in full force and effect to any other loss and any act or event that is not a “declared terrorist incident”.

All other terms, conditions, insured coverage and exclusions of this insurance including applicable limits and deductibles remain unchanged.

If any or all of the Underwriters and/or Insurer(s) have reinsured this insurance with the Australian Reinsurance Pool Corporation, then any such Underwriters and/or Insurer(s) will not be liable for any amounts for which they are not responsible under the terms of ATIA due to the application of a “reduction percentage” as defined in ATIA which results in a cap on the Underwriter’s and/or Insurer’s(s) liability for payment for “eligible terrorism losses”.
