Duty Not to Misrepresent

When answering our questions in the Proposal or making changes to your Policy or at renewal, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to us.

You and any other insured person(s) must answer our questions with relevant and complete information and You must not misrepresent any information that You give to us. You have the same duty in relation to anyone else whom You want to be covered by the Policy.

If You fail to comply with this duty and We would not have entered into this Policy for the same Premium and on the same terms and Conditions expressed in this Policy, We may be entitled to reduce Our liability under the Policy in respect of any claim to the extent that We have been prejudiced, or We may cancel the Policy.

If your failure to comply is fraudulent, We may refuse to pay your claim and treat this Policy as never having been in existence.

Cooling-Off Period

If this Policy does not meet Your requirements, You can cancel the Policy within twenty-one (21) days from the date the Policy commenced by sending a written notice to us that the Policy is not required.

You will receive a full refund of the Premium provided You have not made a claim under the Policy.

Adequate Sums Insured

In the event of a major loss, the Sums Insured and Limits applying to each Section of the Policy should be sufficient to cover such loss. It is Your responsibility to ensure the adequacy of the Sums Insured and You should review these both during the currency of the Policy and prior to renewal each year. Regular building valuations should be sought to ensure that Limits are set at appropriate levels.

Seek professional valuation advice where necessary.

If the Sums Insured and Limits under this Policy are not adequate, You may have to cover the uninsured proportion of any loss.

Claims made notice

Sections 5 and 7 of the Policy operate on a 'claims made and notified' basis. This means that, subject to the provisions of Sections 5 and 7, where You give notice in writing to Us of any facts that might give rise to a claim against You as soon as reasonably practicable after You become aware of those facts but before the expiry of the Period of Insurance, You may have rights under Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) to be indemnified in respect of any claim subsequently made against You arising from those facts notwithstanding that the claim is made after the expiry of the Period of Insurance.

Any such rights arise under the legislation only, in that the terms of the Policy and the effect of the Section, subject to the continuous cover special conditions, is that You are not covered for claims made against You after the expiry of the Period of Insurance.

Our Agreement with You

Subject to receiving Your payment of the Premium set out in the Schedule, We agree to provide the insurance set out in this Policy Wording.

We will cover You for covered loss or damage under the sections of the Policy selected by You.

If you make a claim, We will not pay more than the Sums Insured or Limits of Liability or Sub-Limits of Liability shown in the Policy Schedule or Section unless We have stated that there is an additional limit extension applying to a particular section.

Calculating your Premium

We take a number of factors into account when calculating Your Premium. The annual Premium payable by You will be shown in Your Policy Schedule. Premiums are subject to applicable Commonwealth and State taxes and charges.

There are a number of significant factors which impact generally when calculating Your Premium. These can include:

- The Sums Insured under each chosen Section;

- Your claims history.

The Premium also includes amounts payable in respect of compulsory government charges including Stamp Duty, GST, any Fire Service Levy (where applicable) and any applicable administration fee (as shown in Your Schedule).

How to make a Claim

We will reduce any amount We pay under any such claim by an amount equal to Your input tax credit entitlement. This tax information is a general statement only. See Your tax adviser for information about Your specific circumstances.

Excesses

The Excess is the amount You must contribute towards the cost of any claim You make. If We agree to pay Your claim, the Excess will be deducted from the amount of the claim that is paid to You, or You may be asked to pay the Excess to a supplier, repairer or to Us.

The amount of each applicable Excess including any Special Excess to each Policy Section is shown on Your Schedule.
